PARTNER, HUSBAND, WIFE, FIANCÉ OR FIANCÉE

(EXCERPTS FROM ‘HOW 2 COME TO THE UK’ BOOK written by Charles Kelly & Cynthia Barker, Immigration Advisers )

AT A GLANCE:

- Your partner must be settled or coming to settle in the UK
- Couple needs to be self-supporting and have suitable accommodation
- Both partners need to be over 18
- Only one partner can join the partner already here
- Married: initial 2 years stay, then you can apply to stay permanently
- Unmarried Partners: same stay rules as married if can prove relationship
- Fiancé(e): initial 6 months, if then marry, can apply for 2-year extension
- Must get a visa before travelling to the UK

GENERAL

There are various arrangements in place for you to come to the UK as the husband, wife, fiancé, fiancée or unmarried partner of someone who is coming to live permanently in the UK or is already settled in the UK.

If you want to come to the UK as the husband, wife, or unmarried partner of someone who is not settled in the UK - for example a work permit holder – you may be able to apply as a dependant.

In most cases, you will need to get entry clearance before travelling to the UK.

PLAN OF ACTION

You can apply to join your partner, husband, wife, fiancé or fiancée in the UK as long as: they currently live and are settled in the UK; or they are coming to live permanently in the UK.
