CITIZENSHIP (NATURALISATION)

(EXCERPTS FROM ‘HOW 2 COME TO THE UK’ BOOK written by Charles Kelly & Cynthia Barker, Immigration Advisers)

AT A GLANCE:

- Must have been lawfully in UK for 5 years before applying
- Must have gained indefinite leave to remain (permanent residency)
- No more than 450 days away from UK during 5 year period
- No more than 90 days away during 12 months before you apply
- Once naturalised, you can apply for a British passport

GENERAL

Overseas nationals who have completed a period of employment can apply to be "naturalised" as British citizens if they have lawfully been in the UK specified lengths of time depending on their status.

Prior to applying, the applicant should have gained ‘permanent residency / indefinite leave to remain’ status
